Naples, March 7.

THEIR Majesties and the whole Court are at Caserta, and 'tis thought will not return to this City before Easter. The King goes often a Hunting of wild Boars, and killed several last Week with his own Hands in the Forest of Venafre. Last Week an Express arrived here with some Dispatches relating to the Negociation that is carrying on between the Empress Queen, and his Catholick Majesty, for maintaining the Tranquility of Italy. The Workmen employed by the Court in digging up the Ruins of the ancient City of Heraclea, have lately discovered some extreme fine marble Statues, very little defaced.

Rome, March 11. The Promotion of Cardinals, that has been expected for some Time, is still deferred. Thefts and Robberies are become more frequent in the Ecclesiastical State than ever, all the Precautions made use of to prevent them, having hitherto proved ineffectual. M. Spinelli, the new Legate of Bologna, is set out to take Possession of that Post. The Government having been informed that there is more Corn in the Ferrarois than is necessary for the Subsistance of its Inhabitants, has given Leave for Transporting a certain Quantity into the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia, where it is greatly wanted.

Fribourg in the Brisgau, March 12. General Bohn is arrived here from Vienna, with Orders to cause the Fortifications of this City to be rebuilt in a more regular Manner than they were before the late War, agreeable to a Plan that was laid before their Imperial Majesties and approved by them.

Stockholm, March 17. The King continues to assist regularly at the Deliberations of the Senate. His Majesty's Departure for some of the principal Provinces of this Kingdom, in order to review the Troops, is fixed for the 30th of next Month. The Report of some Disturbances between the Russians and us in Finland, are entirely without Foundation. We have received Advice from divers Places of this Kingdom, of their having lately felt several Shocks of an Earthquake, and particularly at Fahluo and in the District of Tholland, but that they had happily gone off without doing any considerable Damage. We learn from Gothenbourg, that they are in daily Expectation of the Arrival of two of our East-India Company's Ships from China, richly laden.

Prague, March 18. The Regiments of Waldeck and Puebla marched from hence a few Days ago, the first for Tamesvear and the latter for Transilvania; and it is generally believed, that several Regiments, quartered in this Country, will soon receive Orders to march into the Low Countries, and that they will be replaced here by others from Hungary. Count Brown, whom her Imperial Majesty some Time since appointed Chief Commander of the Imperial Troops in this Kingdom, is not yet arrived here from Vienna.

Copenhagen, March 18. The Society established in this City for the Encouragement of Matrimony, and for the Relief and Support of Widows, Orphans and Invalids, have at length chosen Directors for the Management of that Society. Count Lynar, late Minister from this Court to that of Russia, who, on his Return from Petersbourg to this City, was taken ill at Harderfleben in Holstein, arrived here this Morning.

Soleurs, March 18. The Differences between the Canton of Berne, and the Abby of St. Gal, are at length adjusted. We have received Advice by the last Post from Italy, that Count Christiani, Great Chancellor of the Dutchy of Milan, set out from Milan on the 12th Instant for Ostiglia, in order to sign a Convention with the Venetian Commissaries, for ending all Disputes that have arisen in Relation to the Confines of their respective Territories.

Vienna,

[Price Two-Pence.]

1942

Vienna, March. 18. On Monday laſt there was a grand Appearance at Court to compliment their Majeſties on the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Archduke Joſeph, their Imperial Majeſties eldeſt Son; but the Promotion of General Officers, which was expected to be declared that Day, did not take Place. All Things are now ſettled for taking the Inveſtiture on the Part of the Duke of Holſtein Gluckſtadt: The Aulick Council has already made its Report to the Emperor in Relation thereto, and his Imperial Majeſty will ſhortly appoint a Day for performing the Ceremony. Count Seilern, a Member of the Aulick Council, is appointed Miniſter Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of Turin. The Emperor has created M. Schaut, Privy Councillor to the Margrave of Brandenbourg Anſpach, a Baron of the Holy Roman Empire. The firſt Battalion of the Regiment of Puebla arrived here on Wedneſday laſt from Bohemia; and, having paſſed in Review before Count Leopold de Daun, Commandant of this City, embarked the next Morning, and ſailed away for Offen, from whence they are to continue their March by Land for Tranſilvania.

Berlin, March 20. The King has conferred on M. Weyher, the Poſt of Grand Bailiff and Preſident of the Regency of Lawenbourg; and his Majeſty has appointed M. Machenau, Councillor of the Chamber of Juſtice at Halberſtadt, to be Councillor of the Tribunal of Konigſberg.

Dreſden, March 21. Field Marſhal Count Sulkowſky is raiſed to the Dignity of a Prince of the Empire. The Departure of Count Flemming for Vienna will take Place as ſoon as his Lady, who was brought to Bed a few Days ago of a Son, is able to bear the Fatigue of the Journey. By our laſt Advices from Warſaw we are informed, that Count Potocky, Palatine of Braclaw, was married on the 4th Inſtant to the young Counteſs of Saphia.

Munich, March 23. The Departure of the Elector of Cologn for his own Court, is fixed for the 12th or 15th of next Month. That Prince, and the Elector our Sovereign, went on Monday laſt to Neubourg, on a Viſit to the Elector Palatine, and returned here laſt Night.

Cologn, March 27. Two conſiderable Bodies of Recruits have marched from hence within theſe few Days paſt, the firſt to compleat the Regiments in Garriſon at Luxembourg, and the other to be incorporated in that of Prince Charles of Lorrain, which is quartered at Bruſſels. A Gang of Fellows, who for ſome Time paſt have made it their Buſineſs to coin and put off falſe Money, were apprehended a few Dags ago at Ravensberg, a Town belonging to the King of Pruſſia in Weſtphalia; they have ſince been conducted Priſoners to Weſel, in order to be tried for the ſame. We learn from Bielefeld, that a Peaſant named Didier Bentrup, died lately in that Neighbourhood, aged 113 Years; and that in the Village of Dornberg, about a League from that Place, there is a Man now living, aged 115 Years, who enjoys a perfect State of Health. They write from Ratisbon, that Baron Walbrun, Miniſter from the Duke of Wirtembourg to the Diet of the Empire, died there on the 17th Inſtant.

Bruſſels, March 27. At an Aſſembly held laſt Week at the Town Houſe, the Magiſtrates conſented to continue the ſame Duties upon Proviſions as were raiſed laſt Year, agreeable to the Requeſt of the Court. Her Imperial Majeſty has appointed M. Gentis, Biſhop of Antwerp, and the Marquis de Spontin, to be Members of her Council of State in this Country. Prince Charles of Lorrain has taken the Diverſion of Hunting in the Foreſt of Soignies twice this Week, in both which Parties of Pleaſure he was accompanied by ſeveral of the Principal Nobility of this Place.

Hague, March 30. M. Citters, Penſionary of Middlebourg, who is appointed by their High Mightineſſes to be one of their Commiſſaries to the Congreſs at Bruſſels, arrived here a few Days ago. The Members of the Council of State went in a Body on Thurſday laſt to the Aſſembly of the States General, and laid before them the State of War for the Year enſuing. The Deputies from the Province of Friſeland, who arrived here a few Days ago, in order to execute a private Commiſſion, have already had a Conference with the Deputies of their High Mightineſſes, and with thoſe of the Council of State. The Duke of Brunſwick Wolfembuttel has been greatly indiſpoſed for ſome Days paſt, but is now much better.

Navy-Office, March 11, 1752.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 8th of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning preciſely, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſerve his Majeſty with Engliſh Canvas, that they may attend with their Propoſals at that Time.
